

Outstanding Youth in Education Award 2018

The Outstanding Youth in Education Award gives national recognition to young teachers who are role models for the teaching profession. These educators motivate, challenge and inspire their students to realise their full potential. They personify deep passion for teaching, youthful idealism, energy and enthusiasm, and play a critical role in moulding the future of our nation.

Who are we looking for?

Nominees for the award should be teachers who:

- are born on or after 30 June 1983
- are presently in service in a primary school, a secondary school or a junior college / centralised institute
- have shown utmost commitment to the character, moral and citizenship development of students
- motivate, challenge and inspire students to bring out their full potential
- demonstrate deep passion for teaching, and are role models for the teaching profession
- are reflective practitioners who model continuous learning
- contribute to the learning and pedagogical excellence of others

How to nominate?
